Funds Requested By Eisenhower Get Record Cut

WASHINGTON (A)-Singling out civil defense, military and hospital construction and shipbuilding program as special targets, the House Appropriations Committee today slashed 39 per cent from President Eisenhower's requests for $1,959,958,267 in emergency appropriations. If sustained by the House, the committee's action will represent the biggest percentage cut of 1954, and one of the largest in decades, in any presidential money requests. The House will consider the GOP-dominated committee's recommendations early next week

Balances On Hand

For the 10 federal programs involved in an ombibus supplemental appropriation bill-providing funds not allotted in regular money measures—the committee recommended $1,194,188,079, a reduction of $765,770,188 from amounts requested by the President.

Actually, however, the over-all cut was not as drastic as it appeared on the surface.

This was particularly true in the case of military construction, for which the President requested $1,-100,000,000 in new money and the committee recommended only $571,600,000. The committee said said the Defense Department Department should use unobligated balances of previously alotted funds to help foot the construction bill, instead of seeking new cash and retaining the bal-

Words, Wit & Wisdom By William Morris

Some weeks ago we discussed in this space a fascinating dialect word-catawampus. It means catercornered or placed on the diagonal and, like most such dialect terms, is listed in dictionaries as "origin uncertain." I noted also that, down Texas denote a bad-tempered scolding woman.

Today a fascinating letter comes to hand from Mr. J. R. Kitchen of Ailey, Georgia. I suppose it can best be described as a letter of correction and amplification but, in any event, I found it lively reading and I think you will, too.

"Catawampus means cross-wise in the deep South same as anywhere else. But, brother, wampus cat is a horse of another color. A wampus cat is made with a hollow cypress knee five or six inches in diameter, with all the bark removed and both ends cut off down to 22 to 24 inches in length and with a piece of wet goatskin stretched over one end and tacked secure. Make a slot in the skin. Insert leather rosin on gloves. Reach up into the hollow cypress. Slide the string through the fingers. Turn the hollow end the way you want the noise to go. All the Negroes and most three miles. That is what a wampus cat

Many thanks, Mr. Kitchen. You have added to our store of knowledge and certainly your letter brightened my day. Don't ever aim that wampus cat in my direction, though!

From a New York reader comes a newspaper clipping headed INFORMER HOIST WITH OWN PETARD. As we noted in this space some months ago, this expression comes down to us from Shakespeare and literally means one blown in the air by his own bomb. It is used to describe a person trapped in a snarl set by himself. An en- | gin. tirely appropriate headline this was, too, for the story concerned a woman who reon the money the government paid her!

WASHINGTON-Pat Sutton, the young Tennessee congressman who a few years ago sold pants in his congressional office has suddenly turned up with a passel of money at his disposal in his race for the senate against Estes Kefauver.

The money has all the earmarks of coming from the underworld which Kefauver fought and which has vowed to put him out of the senate; with some money also coming from the Texas oil lobby.

One former associate of Mickey Mc Bride, head of the racing wire which linked up the bookies of the nation and which Kefauver put out of business, is now touring Tennessee as Sutton's chief radio expert. He is Robert Venn, who organized three big talkathons for Sutton, costing in the neighborhood of $35,000.

Sutton is also traveling in a helicopter, which takes money to operate. Yet a few short years ago he was not only selling suits of clothes in his Washington office to eke out his salary, but pulled wires at the Justice Department to keep his father-inlaw from being prosecuted for income-tax evasion. In the end, a runaway grand jury in Lawrenceburg, Tenn., indicted his father-in-law despite Sutton's efforts on his

Churchill Returns As Hero; How Long Will Unity Survive?

IN LIGHT SUITS - THE WINNERS? On White House lawn, American and British leaders pose during high-level conferences that brought together (left to right) Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill, President Eisenhower, and British Foreign Secretary Anthon, Eden. British press hailed their side as conference victors.

"For how long?" asked the onearmed and badly-scarred night porter in my hotel. Twice wounded in the last war, he is, like most Britons, literally haunted by the vision of an atomic conflict.

HOW NOT TO SELL-Perhaps we have this sized up all wrong, but we have been the innocent victim of several high-powered-90-mile-an-hour salesman lately and we somehow wish that business would stop trying to pull itself out of a recession by turning on the selling steam.

Business may have been in a slump the early part of this year, unemployment figures may be up-but that's no excuse for trying to sell me something I don't want,

When sales people invade the privacy of my home without invitation, figuratively place a vocal foot in my doorway and refuse to budge without being pushed out, I won't buy. Stubborn? Perhaps, but most people like to do their buying when they want to and at a place of bus-

There must be some basic reason for the sudden push of solicitors trying to sell something in the guise of making "surveys." Perhaps business is even worse than the Democrats say it is or the Republicans will admit.

JUST CHECKING AROUND-Enterprising ladies and gentlemen call at the house in the evening and inform you that they are "making a survey." They want to know if you have false teeth, or other physical handicap, and when you say no they ask if any member of your family, your friends, your relatives, or anyone in the neighborhood is so afflicted. We have refused to encourage these people in their efforts to learn the names of prospective customers. For the purpose of the "survey" is no more than to locate a When we bluntly ask them what they are selling they get all fussed because we are so impolite. And some of them say they aren't selling anything and have to

And each time I arrived home from the garage the radiator was boiling again. The third time this happened my temper was almost as hot as the expensive anti-freeze fluid bubbling out of the radiator.

While I stood there looking-wordlessly -at my recurring misfortune called an automobile, a gentle young man came around the corner of the house, carrying a portable phonograph in one hand a sheaf of bookgood life in the other.

Lie Test Sought In Thorne Death

CHICAGO (A) -Coroner Walter E. McCarron is seeking lie detector tests for all principals in the mysterious death of Montgomery Ward Thorne, heir to a mail order fortune.

McCarron asked police Thursday to request principal witnesses in the case to submit to such tests, saying:

"There has been a lot of conflicting testimony in this case. I am not singling out any one person. If lie detector tests are to be given they should be given to everyone. I'm just trying to be fair."

Police Sgt. Thomas Mulvey, who is helping direct the investigation, said he will consult the Chicago corporation counsel about police authority in the matter. He said he does not believe police could ask for such tests unless there are Now in its third year, the Fat Stock Show and Sale has drawn large crowds. The public in general has found in those roly-poly scrubbed, manicured and pampered pets something very appealing. It has often been said that farmers should purchase more of their own dairy products. Recently a dairy plant in Wisconsin decided to find out how much butter and cheese they had sold to their milk shippers.
